

Navigating the Streamlined Government

The Florida Department of Environmental Protection and Charlotte County Government invite the public, the business community, and the regulated community to an Open House Education Event on March 10, 2014, at the Charlotte Harbor Event Center. Learn to use government knowledge to get your project through the system faster and more efficiently.

Monday, March 10, 2014

Educational Classes 1:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Open House Exhibits 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Charlotte Harbor Event Center

75 Taylor Street, Punta Gorda, FL 33950

Agenda:

- 1:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m. What's Your WET PLAN? Watershed Education Training, Ponds, Lakes and Neighborhoods
- 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. Oversight and Management of Public and Private Utilities 101
- 3:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m. Educational courses covering:
 - Single Family Docking Structures in the Aquatic Preserve and Self-Certification for Docking Structures
 - Asbestos Materials and the Management of Demolition Waste
- 4:00 p.m. - 5:00 p.m. Educational courses covering;
 - Wetlands and Mangroves
 - Manufactured Home - Renovation, Demolition and Asbestos Precautions
- 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.
 - Auto Repair Shop Compliance Assurance
 - Doing Business with the State - How to Become a Certified State Vendor

*To guarantee a spot in any training session; contact Julie Furlong at 239.344.5652 or Julie.Furlong@dep.state.fl.us

- Public opportunity to schedule appointments with agency representatives to discuss specific projects. RSVP to Julie Furlong at 239.344.5652 or Julie.Furlong@dep.state.fl.us
- Open Exhibits for agencies to display their programs and provide information for visitors

