Charlotte County Community Services Department and the American Red Cross have developed a partnership to address the high drowning rate in Charlotte County which is currently more than three times the national average. Funding has been made available to Charlotte County Community Services Department to provide swim lesson scholarships to low income residents of Charlotte County. These scholarships will be applied to Preschool Aquatics, Learn to Swim Levels 1 through 3 and Adult Learning the basic courses only. Scholarship recipients will only pay $5.00 per session for swim lessons. Any Charlotte County resident receiving assistance through state programs qualify.
