2 (a) ~~(a)~~ Variance procedures-Intent and Purpose.

3 ~~Generally the~~The variance process is intended to provide limited relief from the dimensional
4 requirements of the ~~zoning regulations~~ Land Development Regulations in those cases where
5 strict application of those requirements will create a practical difficulty or undue hardship, as
6 distinguished from a mere inconvenience, and prohibiting the use of land in a manner ~~otherwise~~
7 normally allowed under the ~~zoning regulations~~ Land Development Regulations. A variance is 8 ~~intended to~~ should provide relief in limited circumstances where the requirements of the ~~zoning~~
9 ~~regulations~~ Land Development Regulations render the land difficult to use because of some 10 unique, ~~or~~ exceptional, or extraordinary physical attribute of the property itself, or some other
11 extraordinary factor of the property for which the variance is requested. ~~Further specific~~
12 ~~limitations on granting of variances are contained in section 3-9-67, regarding areas of special~~
13 ~~and shallow flood hazard. Any owner, agent, lessee or occupant of land may apply in writing to~~
14 ~~the zoning official for a variance from applicable provisions of the zoning regulations where a~~
15 ~~variance may be requested. Applications shall be submitted through the zoning official, stating the~~
16 ~~specific grounds and the relief requested.~~

17 (b) Applicability.

18 (1) The following procedures shall be used to apply for a variance from the dimensional
19 standards or requirements of this Code which do not qualify for an Administrative Variance.

20 (2) The following procedures shall also be used for an Administrative Variance application only if
21 the Zoning Official has received a valid written objection.

22 ~~(3) A variance to the conditions of use imposed by the BZA for a special exception shall not be~~
23 ~~permitted.~~

24 (c) Initiation.

25 An application for a variance may be initiated by anyone with a legal interest in the property;
26 however, an applicant who is not the owner of subject property, shall be required to present

13 ~~and in the manner originally approved and intended for. It may not be expanded beyond~~
14 ~~what it was originally approved and intended for or extended to another structure.~~

15 ~~(6) An approved variance shall expire and be discontinued if the property is redeveloped in a~~
16 ~~manner which exceeds the 50 percent rule.~~

17 ~~(7) If any structure based upon and incorporating a variance is removed or destroyed the~~
18 ~~variance shall expire one year after removal or destruction of the structure, unless, a permit~~
19 ~~based upon and incorporating the original variance is issued prior to this expiration.~~

20 (f)(k) Limitations of applications for variances- Time between Similar Applications.

21 Whenever the ~~board of zoning appeals BZA~~ has denied an application for a variance, the ~~board~~
22 ~~of zoning appeals BZA~~ shall not thereafter consider an identical application for a variance
23 concerning all or part of the same property for a period of six ~~(6)~~ months from the date of such 24 action, except that this requirement may be waived by the positive votes of a majority of the 25 members of the ~~board of zoning appeals BZA~~ when such action is deemed necessary. Should
26 the variance application, which was denied, be modified, the ~~six-month one year~~ waiting period
27 shall not apply.

28 (g)(l) Administrative variances-Variances.

16              ~~part of the eOfficial Rrecords of Charlotte County. A copy of the recorded Notice of Approval~~
17              ~~shall also be mailed to the applicant.~~

18              a. If the Zoning Official should deny an application for an administrative variance, the 19              Zoning Official shall state fully in writing to the applicant the reasons for denial. Such 20              reasons shall take into account the Comprehensive Plan, Code of Ordinances, and the 21              Land Development Regulations as they may be applicable to the denial.

22              b. Should the Zoning Official determine that the requested administrative variance may be
23              approved, the Zoning Official shall mail and publish the notices required by this Code.

24              c. If the Zoning Official does not receive a written objection from an adjoining property
25              owner within 15 calendar days of the date the published notice appears in the newspaper
26              the Zoning Official may approve the administrative variance requested.

27              d. If the Zoning Official does receive a written objection from an adjoining property owner
28              within 15 calendar days of the date the published notice appears in the newspaper then
29              the Zoning Official shall schedule a public hearing before the BZA regarding the 30              administrative variance requested and notice that public hearing according to 31              requirements for a regular variance in this Code. The applicant shall be responsible for 32              all additional cost incurred by the County for mailing and publishing additional notices.

33       (6) Action by Board of Zoning Appeals.

34               If the Zoning Official receives a valid written objection from an adjoining property owner, the 35               BZA shall hold a public hearing to obtain public input on the proposed administrative 36               variance. Following the public hearing the BZA may approve, approve with conditions, or 37               deny the proposed administrative variance. The BZA shall state the reasons for their
